Opening Acclamation

BCP p. 78

Officiant

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

The hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for such the Father seeks to worship him.

The Confession of Sin

BCP p. 79

Officiant

Dearly beloved, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father, to set forth his praise, to hear his holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things that are necessary for our life and our salvation. And so that we may prepare ourselves in heart and mind to worship him, let us kneel in silence, and with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant

Almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us all our sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen us in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep us in eternal life. Amen.

Officiant Lord, open our lips.

People* And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen. Alleluia.

Venite

BCP p. 82

Come, let us sing to the Lord; *

let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving * and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, *
and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it, *
and his hands have molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. *
Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

The Psalm Appointed: Psalm 25:1-8

To you, O Lord, I lift up my soul; my God, I put my trust in you; *
let me not be humiliated, nor let my enemies triumph over me.

Let none who look to you be put to shame; *
let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

Show me your ways, O Lord, *
and teach me your paths.

Lead me in your truth and teach me, *
for you are the God of my salvation; in you have I trusted all the day long.

Remember, O Lord, your compassion and love, *
for they are from everlasting.

Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; *
remember me according to your love and for the sake of your goodness, O Lord.

Gracious and upright is the Lord; *
therefore he teaches sinners in his way.

He guides the humble in doing right * and teaches his way to the lowly.

The First Reading

Ezekiel 18:1-4, 25-32

The word of the Lord came to me: What do you mean by repeating this proverb concerning the land of Israel, “The parents have eaten sour grapes, and the children’s teeth are set on edge”? As I live, says the Lord God, this proverb shall no more be used by you in Israel. Know that all lives are mine; the life of the parent as well as the life of the child is mine: it is only the person who sins that shall die.

Yet you say, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” Hear now, O house of Israel: Is my way unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair? When the righteous turn away from their righteousness and commit iniquity, they shall die for it; for the iniquity that they have committed they shall die. Again, when the wicked turn away from the wickedness they have committed and do what is lawful and right, they shall save their life. Because they considered and turned away from all the transgressions that they had committed, they shall surely live; they shall not die. Yet the house of Israel says, “The way of the Lord is unfair.” O house of Israel, are my ways unfair? Is it not your ways that are unfair?

Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, all of you according to your ways, says the Lord God. Repent and turn from all your transgressions; otherwise iniquity will be your ruin. Cast away from you all the transgressions that you have committed against me, and get yourselves a new heart and a new spirit! Why will you die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone, says the Lord God. Turn, then, and live.

Canticle 16 The Song of Zechariah

BCP p. 92

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel; *
he has come to his people and set them free.

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, *
born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies, *
from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers * and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, *
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, *
holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, *
for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,

To give his people knowledge of salvation *
by the forgiveness of their sins.

In the tender compassion of our God *
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,

To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, *
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: *
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Reading

Philippians 2:1-13

If then there is any encouragement in Christ, any consolation from love, any sharing in the Spirit, any compassion and sympathy, make my joy complete: be of the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility regard others as better than yourselves. Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others. Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Therefore, my beloved, just as you have always obeyed me, not only in my presence, but much more now in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling; for it is God who is at work in you, enabling you both to will and to work for his good pleasure.

Canticle 21 You are God

BCP p. 95

You are God: we praise you;

You are the Lord; we acclaim you;

You are the eternal Father:

All creation worships you.

To you all angels, all the powers of heaven,

Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise:

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

The glorious company of apostles praise you.

The noble fellowship of prophets praise you.

The white-robed army of martyrs praise you.
Throughout the world the holy Church acclaim you;
 Father, of majesty unbounded,
 your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
 and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
You, Christ, are the king of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free
you did not shun the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come and be our judge.
 Come then, Lord, and help your people, bought with the price of your own blood,
 and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

The Third Reading

Matthew 21:23-32

When Jesus entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, "By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?" Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?" And they argued with one another, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why then did you not believe him?' But if we say, 'Of human origin,' we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet." So they answered Jesus, "We do not know." And he said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

"What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not'; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, 'I go, sir'; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The first." Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Sunday Morning Adult

Formation: Timely Texts

Today, Kevin Laskowski begins an occasional formation series called Timely Texts. It's a wilderness period here at Holy Cross: a time of pandemic with its losses and stresses and a time of transition as we prepare for the arrival of our new priest-in-charge. What are we to do? Where do we look for wisdom amid the noise? Maybe Scripture? In each session, we'll turn to a different book of the Bible to look for lessons on how to navigate this wilderness. Today—Exodus

Check your Thursday email or the website for the Zoom link.

New! Christian Formation For Children & Youth

Sunday School is moving to Zoom! Beginning Sunday, October 4, from 10-10:30 AM, grades Kindergarten - 5 will be doing a verse-by-verse exploration of The Beatitudes from the Gospel of Matthew. We will explore Jesus' timeless teaching through art, reflection, and discussion. Blessed are the children of Holy Cross to have this great new offering! There are supplemental materials to be emailed home each week, so send your email address to megan.hoskins@holycrossepiscopal.org, or be ready to give it to the teachers when you log in.

Holy Cross Youth in grades 6-12 will be meeting on Sundays from 5 – 6 PM beginning Sunday, October 4. This group will explore the intersection of faith and experience, addressing the issues of students' daily lives and how their faith can support them as they navigate the world. Check your Thursday email or the website for the Zoom link.

Register Now for Sacred Ground

Next Sunday, October 4 at 10:30 a.m., as part of our adult education forum, we will begin Sacred Ground, a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. The series invites groups to walk through chapters of America's history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity.

Sacred Ground is a 10-part series, built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Pacific American histories as they intersect with European American histories.

We plan to offer each part every 4-6 weeks. Some homework is required, but you'll have a month to work and reflect between our sessions and dialogues. It is free to participate, but you must register so that we can distribute materials and form the appropriate small groups.

Sacred Ground is part of Becoming Beloved Community, The Episcopal Church's long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society. This series is especially designed to help white people talk with other white people. Sacred Ground is open to all, but registration is required. To register and to receive links to required readings, email Kevin Laskowski.

Blessing of the Animals: Drive-Thru Blessings!

Join us next Sunday, October 4 for our traditional Blessing of the Animals, coronatide edition. October 4 we will celebrate the feast of St. Francis, patron saint of animals and the environment, so bring your pets to Holy Cross for a drive-thru, socially-distant animal blessing.

Mr. Kevin Laskowski and The Rev. Claudia Tielking will be on the sidewalk of our parking lot, ready to offer thanks for the creatures who share our lives and homes with us. Bring your pets—your dog, cat, hamster, snake, spider, any creature, great or small—to our in-person, outdoor service at 9 AM, or drive through our parking lot between 3-5 PM for a blessing-to-go.

Want to give more tangible thanks? Please bring a donation of unexpired, unopened dog or cat food to support the Fairfax County Animal Shelter, the Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care Shelter, and the Berkeley County Humane Society (WV). Bring your furry (and feathered and scaly) friends, and perhaps a food donation for those who have not yet found their “forever home” to Holy Cross, and give thanks to God for their fun and companionship.

The New Testament: In and Out of Order

Wednesday nights at 7 – 8:30 p.m. via Zoom beginning

October 7

Join us this fall for our new weekly Wednesday Evening Bible Study, during which we read and discuss Christian Scriptures—but not in the order they appear in your Bible—in the order they were likely written. Following the sequence in Marcus Borg's Evolution of the Word (2013), we'll begin with several epistles, move on to gospels, and listen as the followers of Jesus become the Body of Christ. It's not (only) about getting the order right, but about hearing these inspired texts—and the voice of God—afew.

Read the assigned scripture for the week from your favorite Bible, and join us for lively facilitated conversation. No registration is required. For more information and the syllabus, visit our website or contact Megan Hoskins.

Upcoming sessions:

Oct. 7— 1 Thessalonians

Oct. 14— Galatians

Oct. 21— 1 Corinthians

Oct. 28— Philemon, Philipians, and 2 Corinthians

Nov. 4— Romans

Nov. 11— Mark

Nov. 18— James and Colossians
